

Rawls Museum Arts...

ART CAMP

JUNE 23 – 27, 2008

Come join in the fun and learn about Native American art! Participants will have the opportunity to learn about the beauty of Native American art and traditions. Taught by artist/photographer Autumn Nuckols, classes will begin with a short lesson on a different tribe each day followed by a demonstration of a craft. Students will then create one of a kind craft. Projects include dream catchers walking sticks, and clay pots.

By the end of the week the class will have completed five different projects and acquired knowledge of many Native Americans from this area and other parts of the country.

Ages 5-8
Time: 9am – 12pm

Ages 9-12
Time: 12:30 – 3pm

Tuition includes supplies and a snack! Please preregister and prepay.

MEMBERS - $50 NONMEMBERS -$60

About the instructor... Autumn Nuckols is a native of Suffolk, Virginia and comes to the Rawls Museum as an instructor with B.A. Degree in Art from Ferrum College. She is assisting in planning and presenting children's programs for the Education Outreach Program for Rawls Arts and is also a freelance photographer with her own business.

To register or to receive more information on these and other classes please contact
Rawls Museum Arts:

Beth Fox, Education Coordinator – (757) 653-9814
Leigh Ann Chambers, Director,
RMA Gallery – (757) 653-0754 or Fax (757) 653-0341
www.rawlsarts.com

Address: 22376 Linden Street, Courtland, VA 23837

Rawls Museum Arts...

A partner of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts gratefully acknowledges the support of the Virginia Commission for the Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts, The City of Franklin, Southampton, Isle of Wight, & Surry Counties, The Camp Foundations, The Business Consortium for Arts Support, Franklin Southampton Charities, the Doris Conover Memorial Fund, and our dedicated membership.